OUR EDIT OF THE PEOPLE, PLACES AND PRODUCTS FOR YOUR RADAR THIS MONTH

If you've conquered the Rockies and tired of the Alps, there's an under-the-radar skiing destination you should know about: GODERDZI in Georgia. Just 100km from the city of Batumi on the Black Sea, and at an elevation of more than 2,000m, it offers pristine powder for six months amid beautiful forested scenery. visitbatumi.com

There are so many brilliant accommodation options at THE FISH HOTEL in the Cotswolds, it's hard to know which one to book. Will it be the country-chic bedrooms in The Coach House and The Stables? The treehouses complete with outdoor hot tub and a button for ordering drinks? Or the cute and cosy shepherd's huts? You'll just have to come back to try them all. thefishhotel.co.uk

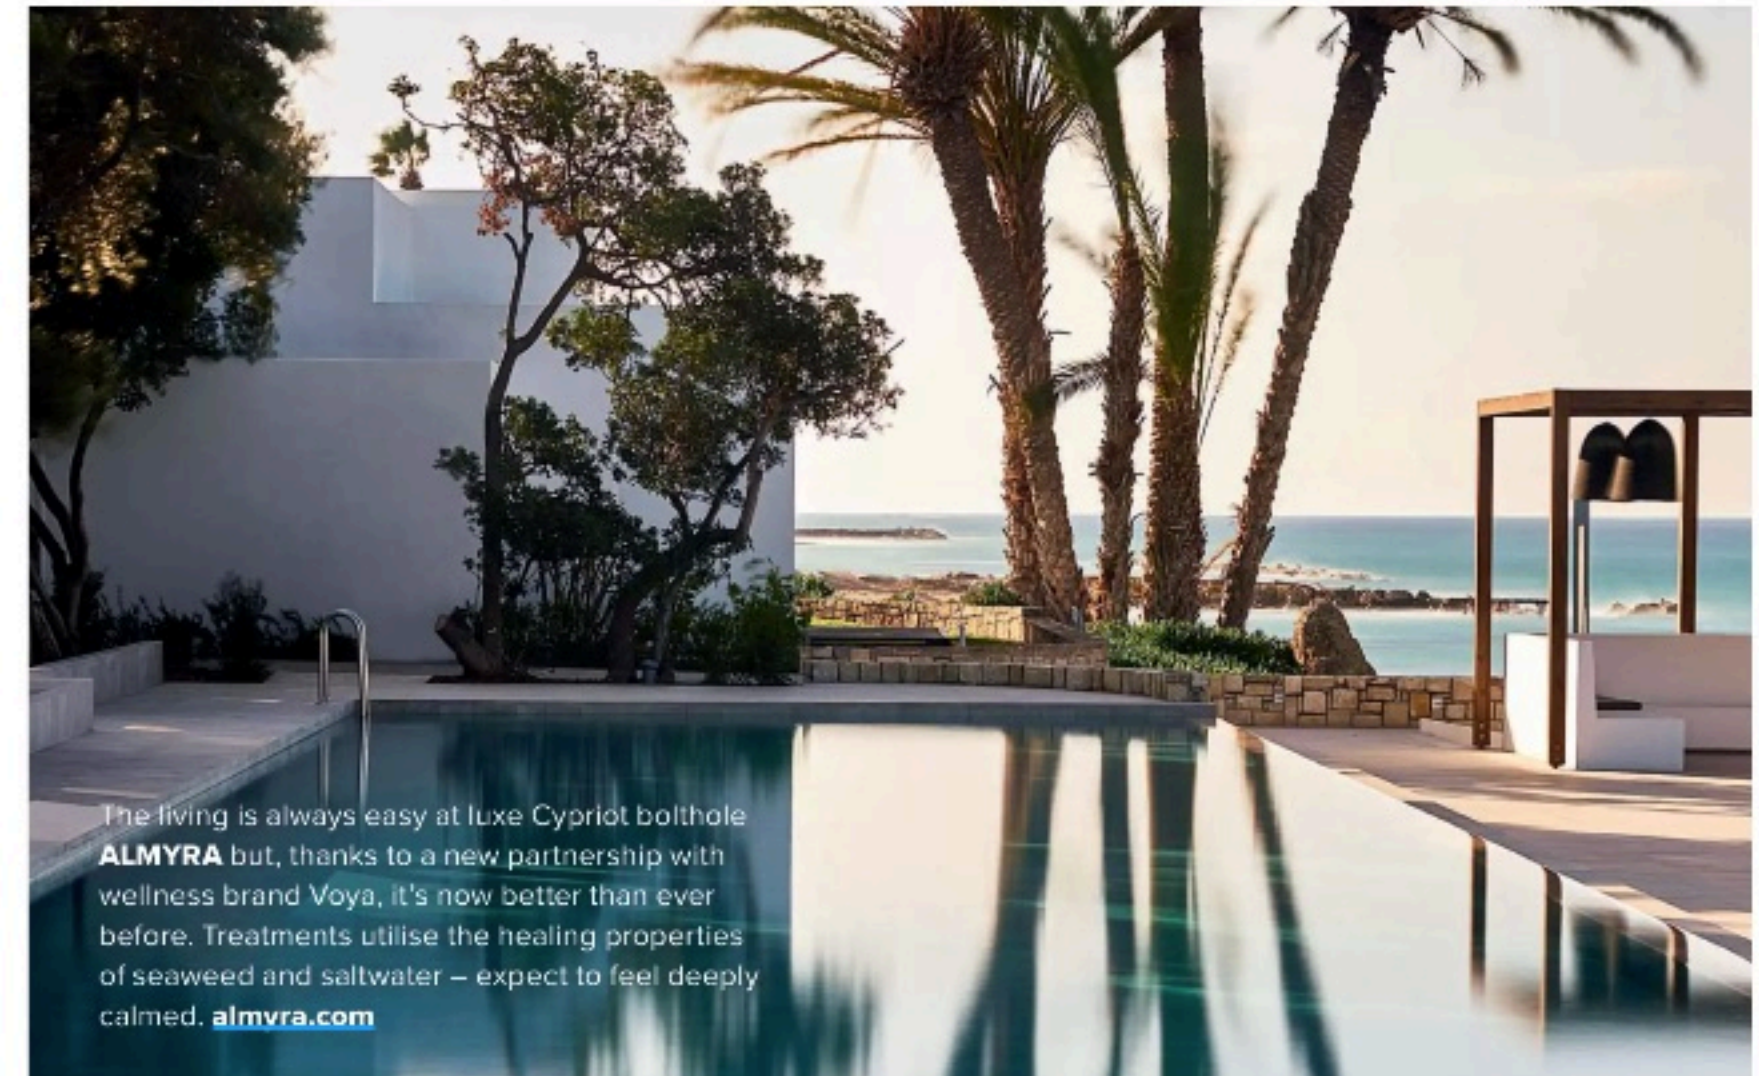

Why limit yourself to just one ski resort when you can cover several on a ski safari? That's what's on offer in the DOLOMITES, a multi-day trip that takes you to some of Italy's finest pistes. Each day brings new terrain, each night new vistas as you bed down for the night in a traditional rifugio (alpine hut), refuelling at gourmet restaurants along the way. dolomitemountains.com

If you're dreaming of winter sun, you can't get much better than the islands of the Indian Ocean – and CONSTANCE HOTELS is the expert in this region, with properties in Mauritius, Rodrigues, Seychelles, Maldives and Madagascar. Swim with manta rays and whale sharks, play golf on championship courses or catch your own fish for dinner – it's all possible. constancehotels.com

While Bali's beaches are where most visitors flock, its rainforest is a special space that's often overlooked. CAPELLA UBUD, a camp of 22 one-bedroom tents and a two-bedroom lodge, envelopes you in the sights and sounds of nature with all the comforts of a five-star hotel: private saltwater pools, outdoor copper bathtubs and stories and cocktails around the campfire. capellahotels.com

The living is always easy at luxe Cypriot bolthole ALMYRA but, thanks to a new partnership with wellness brand Voya, it's now better than ever before. Treatments utilise the healing properties of seaweed and saltwater – expect to feel deeply calmed. almvra.com
