

Voting Opens for the Little London Awards 2016

The Little London Awards are back, have your voice heard...

After a successful launch last year with over 70,000 votes, we are delighted to announce that voting is now open for our second batch of awards – Little London Awards 2016 – celebrating the very best pregnancy, baby and children's brands and products.

With the power now in your hands, it's time to make your vote count and support your favourite brands and must have products... by voting you'll also be automatically entered for the chance to win a luxury holiday to Cyprus from family-favourite Scott Dunn.

The lucky winner will be staying at the stunning Almyra Hotel which offers a laidback and elegant take on Mediterranean luxury that's perfect for families. With the Explorers Kids' Club run by Scott Dunn (for little ones aged four months and over), organic restaurants, the award-winning Almyra spa and white muslin-draped daybeds by the pool, Almyra is the perfect place to unwind by the sea in style – and all you need to do is vote in the Little London Awards to enter!
